THE LIFE SCIENCES REPORT

The following is an excerpt from the Streetwise Reports interview with Jeb Handwerger, President, Mining Development Corp., Jeb Handwerger: Position Yourself for Fall Fireworks.

Gold Standard Ventures Corp. is on my watchlist as it has made multiple discoveries in Nevada's historic and famous Carlin Trend, which is home to a bunch of majors such as Newmont and Barrick. Gold Standard just consolidated the Pinion asset, which may have nearer-term production capabilities. The company is planning to release an NI 43-101 resource estimate in the near term, which will give me a better sense of the asset. The geological team has several additional targets that they will follow up on after the publication of the resource."
